SALT SPRINGS

Last Wednesday night, Mr and Mrs Ed Hutchison very delightfully entertained a crowd of their young friends at their pretty country home east of Salt Springs. Cards and cro-kinole were the pleasures of the evening, which was passed most pleasantly by all present. After these pastimes had been indulged in, refreshments were served, which concluded one of the nicest parties given in the neighborhood. About twenty couples were present; Miss Hume assisted Mrs Hutchison in receiving the guests, in her hospitable and tasteful way.

A large crowd attended the debate at Salt Springs school house last Friday night. The question at issue was whether an intelligent student could gain more by reading than observation. C B Hudson and A H Orr ably represented the affirmative, but C Bacon and Aubrey Deal knocked the persuasion.

Hub Ransberger, Chas Foltz, W M Rader, Henry Bower, Jas Blair, David Orr, Mr Murry, Harry Orr, Chas Bacon and Miss Scarborough attended the X-ray entertainment at Malta Bend Wednesday night.

E Kennedy attended the sale south of Marshall Tuesday. Even if he was defeated in his up-hill fight for roadoverseer, he still holds his head up with an expression of new zeal and determination.

The young people are prospecting on a social next Tuesday night.
All arrangements have been completed for the affair, the proceeds of which are to go toward the Armistice Fund.

Hunters have had a little sport in their line the past week, as ducks are again to be found on Salt Branch.

Rev Beatty made one of his frequent visits to the Salt Springs neighborhood this week.

Mr and Mrs Thornton were in Marshall Wednesday.

James Orr lost a very fine saddle horse this week.

The successful patience displayed by Hutchings in photographing children is simply marvelous. He makes a specialty of children's pictures.

SLATER.

Tuesday morning the sad intelligence was brought to Slater that Charles Unkefer, a brakeman on the C & A, was killed at Centralia by falling under the cars. This news was quite a blow to his wife and friends, who only yesterday saw Mr Unkefer enjoying good health. He leaves a heartbroken wife and one child to mourn. May He who doeth all things well comfort them in this their sad bereavement.

Miss Maud Ray, of Sweet Springs, who has been visiting Miss Rena Reid in our city has returned home.

Movers Hubner and Lyons moved down from Marshall Wednesday evening to visit friends.

Miss Marie Schreiber, who has been sick at her home in East Slater, is able to be out again.

Marcus Rhoades has been suffering from an attack of the grip for the last few days.

Ed Mohler has returned after a very pleasant visit to his parents at Merloo, Mo.

Mike Nauwerth is able to be out again after an attack of the grip.

Mrs Harry McClain is still quite sick at her home in West Slater.

Judd Parrish and Will Rea were in our town Sunday afternoon.

Judge B J Orear, of Orearville, was in town Tuesday.

Antiff Rawlings, of the county was in our city Saturday.

Have you seen our neckwear window? It reminds one of spring. ROSE & BUCKNER.

FISH CREEK.

Died at her son's, M A Stone, Mrs Close, better known in this community as grandma Close, age about 95.
She was a highly respected christian lady and died in the belief of a happy resurrection. The remains were interred at Fish Creek burying ground by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

Fish Creek Church will sustain quite a loss in Bro Kelley's departure, he being superintendent of Sunday school.

We have been informed that Miss Marion Fields has been quite low, but was some better yesterday.

Rev. Thomerson filled his regular appointment at the church Sunday and Sunday night.

Mrs Millie Dilley died Saturday and was buried Sunday the 12th at Fish Creek church.

Joseph Kelley and Lee Campbell will soon move to their new home near Miami.

The wheat is starting up nicely after the extremely cold weather.

Prof Fields dismissed school last week on account of sickness.

Wm Shepherd is quite sick at the time of this writing.

The gripe is still raging in these parts.

Every suit we sell whether for boy or man, must fit before it leaves our store. We keep a tailor for that purpose.

pick guitar strings. Success to you Miss Stella.

Uncle Bob Foster (only) is convalescent after a severe attack of pneumonia.

After the long siege of cold weather, it has looked like spring for a few days.

It's reported Miss Bertha Sullivan has received a lovely valentine.

La gripe seems to be an epidemic in our vicinity at present.

Miss Mande Switzer of Miami is visiting Miss Ona Davis.

L A Brenizer went to Slater Saturday to visit relatives.

Lenty Mullins and W H Gwinn are out on sick legs.

Report of Bank Examiner,

M. A. Arnold acting in response to President Rogers' request has made the following report as to the condition of the Bank of Slater.
The uneasiness of any anxious de-positors ought, certainly to be dispelled after this statement.

"I have this day examined the Bank of Slater and find it to be in good condition. The stockholders of the bank have taken out all the notes held against C. L. Storts, J.
W. Martin and Storts & Edwards and have put up cash instead, the bank having no liability in the matter; loss if any, on these loans to be sustained by the stockholders individually.

M. A. ARNOLD,
State Bank Examiner.
Slater, Mo., February 17, 1899."

Joe Mitchell was called to St.
Louis Tuesday by a telegram an-
